AMBER McCRAY

HEAD COACH

@CoachA_McCray

Amber McCray enters her fifth year as the head coach of the Louisiana Tech Volleyball program. The former Florida All-American was named the 10th head coach in the program's history on December 12, 2018.

LA Tech built some momentum coming out of the 2022 season that saw the program register 11 wins, the most since 2019. Four of those came against Conference USA action, including two 3-0 sweeps of Charlotte and UTSA, to match the most CUSA victories in a single season since 2016. The team came one win shy of qualifying for the CUSA Tournament for the first time in program history, a goal they are set out to do in 2023.

The momentum carried over from a nine-win season in 2021 which saw a number of statistical improvements, most notably in team attacks per set (37.83) that ranked 17th in the country and in digs per set (16.54) which ranked 34th in the nation. The uptick in digs was thanks in large part to libero McKenzie Johnson who earned Second Team All-Conference USA honors, the first Lady Techster to be named all-conference since 2017.

In the split 2020-21 season, Johnson was one of nine newcomers who joined the program along with Morgan Smith who anchored the team in blocks in each of the last two seasons.

LA Tech tallied an overall record of 13-15 in McCray's first season at the helm in 2019, including a blistering 11-4 start to the season. The hot start included a stretch in which the Bulldogs reeled off eight wins in nine matches while claiming two tournament championships -- Sam Houston State Invitational and the LA Tech Invitational.

Statistically, the team improved in several statistical categories including more kills, assists, aces, and blocks per set than in 2018 while returning many of the same student-athletes. The 2019 team also committed 99 fewer errors than the prior year.

The program has also excelled in the classroom under McCray's leadership, earning the USMC/AVCA Team Academic Award three times while also having 55 Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll recipients and 10 Academic Medalists.

McCray came to Ruston after building Panola College into a nationally ranked program, leading the Fillies to 169 wins and two National Junior College Athletic Association national tournament appearances (2016, 2017). She was one win away from the national tournament in three other seasons at Panola.

McCray spent eight seasons at Panola – six as the head coach – earning conference Coach of the Year honors in 2014 and 2016 and Region XIV District H Coach of the Year honors in 2016 and Region XIV District I Coach of the Year honors in 2017. She guided the Fillies to a seventh place finish in the national tournament in 2016 and a ninth place finish in 2017.

The 2016 team won 35 matches and was ranked No. 1 in the country in the NJCAA Division I polls over the final three weeks of the season. It marked her second 30-plus win season at Panola as the 2015 team also accomplished the feat – the first for the program in more than a decade.

During her time at Panola, McCray coached 28 1st or 2nd team Region XIV all-conference performers, 19 Region XIV academic all-conference honorees and two NJCAA All-Americans. Panola volleyball had a 100 percent graduation rate for volleyball student-athletes enrolled at the school through all four semesters during McCray's tenure.

McCray spent two years as an assistant coach at Panola (2011-2013) prior to being promoted to the head coaching position in 2013. She has also spent the past eight years coaching club volleyball teams in east Texas.

As a student-athlete at Florida (2003-07), McCray was a two-year captain and a member of five straight Southeastern Conference championship teams (including a medical redshirt season). She was a member of the team that advanced to the national championship game in 2003. She was named second team All-American in 2006 and two-time all-Southeastern Conference in 2006 and 2007.

McCray also excelled off the court, earning ESPN The Magazine 2nd Team Academic All-American honors in 2007, ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors from 2005-2007, and SEC Academic Honor Roll from 2004-2007. McCray was nominated to represent the entire UF athletic program at the NCAA Leadership Convention in 2006, and her efforts in the Gainesville community earned her a spot on the SEC Community Service Team in 2007.

As a senior, McCray also received the Tracy Caulkins Award, presented to UF's top graduating female student-athlete who possesses the traits of academic achievement, athletic achievement, leadership and involvement in the community.

McCray was a decorated three-sport athlete for Pine Tree (Texas) High School, becoming the state of Texas' first two-time recipient of the Gatorade High School Volleyball Player of the Year Award in 2001 and 2002.

DR. LES GUICE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

@LKGuice

Dr. Les Guice and Louisiana Tech University share a rich history together that spans five decades. From an architecture student stepping on the campus for the first time in 1972 to his appointment as Louisiana Tech's 14th President in 2013, Guice has shown an unwavering commitment to leadership and service to his alma mater.

One of Guice's first achievements at Tech was earning a Bachelor of Arts in Architecture in 1976. While he was an undergraduate, Guice found a passion for Engineering and went on to earn a master's degree in Civil Engineering from Tech in 1978. He earned his PhD in Civil Engineering at Texas A&M University in 1986 and decided to pursue teaching as his career.

Guice's dedication to his students and the University would lead to his appointment as Dean of the College of Engineering and Science (COES) in 1999. As Dean, Guice supported innovations in the college, including a transformative redesign of the first-year curriculum for engineering and science students.

With a focus on the future and a progressive vision for economic development, Guice led the planning and development of the Louisiana Tech Enterprise Campus – a research park connecting the University and downtown Ruston. The Enterprise Campus' first building, Tech Pointe, was completed in 2012 and is now home for several companies and organizations. Construction on Tech Pointe II is near completion.

As president of Tech, Guice is the chief executive officer of north Louisiana's only Carnegie Foundation national research university. The University is also one of only two public universities from Louisiana recognized in the top tier of national universities by U.S. News and World Report.

Throughout his career, Guice has contributed to and played a central role in creating the culture and vision for the future of Tech. His focus on campus-wide engagement, building and growing relationships, and leadership in forging a path toward advancement of the University's academic and athletic programs, research and commercialization activities, and economic development efforts means that Louisiana Tech University's best days are yet to come.

Guice and his wife Kathy have three children and four grandchildren.

DR. ERIC A. WOOD

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS/VICE PRESIDENT

@EWOOD_AD

Culture. Class. Competitive Excellence.

Those are the pillars that Dr. Eric A. Wood has embraced and vocalized since stepping foot on the Louisiana Tech University campus Oct. 23, 2020 when he was formally introduced as Vice President and Director of Athletics by University President Dr. Les Guice.

The 24-year veteran of collegiate athletics came to Ruston following a five-year stint at UCF, becoming the first Director of Athletics in LA Tech history to also serve as a Vice President while also becoming the first African-American Vice President and the first minority Director of Athletics in the University's history.

Wood's energy, enthusiasm, and electric personality have hit home with the LA Tech student-athletes, coaches, support staff, and fan base during his three years as AD.

And since coming on board during one of the most trying times in collegiate athletics history, his leadership has helped LA Tech gain momentum – both on and off the playing surfaces.

Athletically, that momentum can be seen in the number of championships won.

- Baseball – 2021 CUSA West Division champions and 2022 CUSA Tournament champions
- Softball – 2022 CUSA Regular Season champions
- Women's Basketball – 2022 CUSA West Division champions
- Men's Basketball – 2021 CUSA West Division champions

LA Tech was the only Division I school in the country to have won a conference regular season title in baseball, softball, men's basketball and women's basketball within the two-year span of 2021-22. The Bulldog and Lady Techster Basketball teams also made it to the Conference USA Championship game in 2022, marking just the eighth time in CUSA history a school has had both programs advance to the finals.

Other team highlights during Wood's tenure include the seventh straight bowl appearance by Bulldog Football, back-to-back-to-back NCAA Regional appearances by the Bowling program, Bulldog Basketball's run to the 2021 NIT Final Four, individual NCAA postseason qualifiers in Track and Field and Golf, and back-to-back NCAA Regional appearances by Bulldog Baseball (including the first ever host of an NCAA Regional in 2021).

LA Tech also had plenty of champions in the classroom with numerous academic records broken during Wood's time as AD.

- 987 single-year APR average and 981 multi-year APR average
- 230 student-athletes named to the CUSA Commissioner's Honor Roll (2021-22)
- 75 student-athletes receiving the CUSA Commissioner's Academic Medal (2021-22)
- 8 programs recording a perfect 1,000 single-year APR score (2021-22 and 2020-21)

Other impressive academic accomplishments over the last three years have included 39 conference All-Academic Team honorees, 34 CoSIDA Academic All-District selections (record-high 22 in 2022-23), and six CoSIDA Academic All-American selections (record-high three in 2020-21).

On the fundraising front, the University has totaled nearly $20M in dollars received in athletics during Wood's tenure, including $6.18M for FY23. A primary reason for the increase in commitments this past year was due to the Aug. 1, 2022 launch of the Aillet Society, the first-ever major giving society with five-year commitments of $25,000 or more. Since the launch one year ago, 60 shareholders across seven states have joined the Aillet Society with the median gift being $50,000.

The Louisiana Tech Athletic Club (LTAC) continued to thrive as well in FY23 with a record 1,550 total donors, a 45 percent increase from FY22. LA Tech Athletics also felt the fundraising impact on University Giving Day on April 20 of this year, which ended with a record-setting $1.8M from 177 donors. The staff within LA Tech Athletics continues to play a role in philanthropic support with 100 percent giving among full-time employees all three years Wood has served as AD.

The many six- and seven-figure commitments made by individual donors have been for capital projects that support the Bulldog and Lady Techster student-athletes. The University opened brand new facilities in J.C. Love Field at Pat Patterson Park, Dr. Billy Bundrick Softball Field, Robert Mack Caruthers Soccer Field, Origin Bank Soccer and Softball Complex, and additional support facilities that totaled in excess of $40 million in new athletics facility construction.

The latest capital project includes the construction of the Sarah and A.L. Williams Champions Plaza, which will honor the most highly-decorated LA Tech student-athletes. The plaza is part of a revamped north end zone project at Joe Aillet Stadium that will include a new Daktronics video board and the new Student-Athlete Success Center.

All of these momentum-building moments have led to exponential growth in the brand as well through social media and the official athletics website LATechSports.com. There has been a 17.1 percent increase in followers across all social media platforms with half of the accounts generating at least a 15 percent growth in followers. The redesigned website saw its most web traffic ever with record highs in page views (3.06 million), sessions (1.34 million), and users (780,000+) in 2021-22.

All of these accomplishments are signs of the three pillars – Culture, Class and Competitive Excellence.

The Bronx, New York, native has also served in a variety of roles outside of LA Tech, having been appointed to the Division I NCAA Football Oversight Committee and to the Division I Council as well as being named Chair of the Football Success Committee.

Prior to making Ruston his new home, Wood spent more than two decades serving within athletics administration. In addition to his time at UCF, he has held full-time positions at the University of Arkansas, the Atlantic Coast Conference, Wake Forest University and the University of New Haven. He also served as a postgraduate intern at the NCAA national office and a graduate assistant at Clemson University early in his career.

At every level of his professional career, Wood has made an impact. His qualifications and accomplishments include:

- Sacred Heart University Board of Trustees
- Head coach hires in football (Sonny Cumbie), men's basketball (Talvin Hester), softball (2022 CUSA Coach of the Year Josh Taylor), soccer (Steve Voltz), track and field (Brian Johnson), and tennis (Amy Sargeant)
- 2020-21 University of Arkansas Outstanding Alumni of the Year-College of Health, Human Performance & Recreation
- 2019 "Next Up" honoree presented by Adidas and College AD for senior level administrators
- Athletics Representative on the UCF Presidents Advisory Staff Council
- 2016 Top 40 Under 40 in the Arkansas Business Journal
- 2009 graduate of the NCAA's Leadership Institute
- NCAA, NLI, Division I-A Athletics Director's Association (Now Lead1), USTA committee service
- 1994-1998 NCAA football student-athlete
- 1998 Medal of Merit recipient as student-athlete of the Year

During his tenure at UCF, Wood served as a member of the executive leadership team while also representing the department on the President's Advisory Staff Council and serving as sport administrator for the football and men's basketball programs.
